PLAN REPUBLICAN RALLY

City Committee Arranges Mass Meeting at Academy October 29. Plans for a large Republican party

mass meeting in the Academy of Music on the night of October 29 were formulated today at a meeting of the Republican City Committee in their headquarters, Eleventh and Chestnut streets. It has been arranged to have Dr. Martin G. Brumbaugh, candidate for Gov-erner, and Senator Boies Penrose, candidate for re-election, as well as all candidates for Congresional offices, among the speakers. Before the mass meeting, it is expected a parade will take place which will be participated in by loyal supporters of the party from all sections of the city. This, however, has not been finally decided. Prior to the meeting of the City Com-mittee, which was an executive session, there were meetings of the Campaign Committee, the Speakers Committee and chairmen of all the Ward Committees. It was decided to arrange for railys to ne held at stated intervals in all congressional districts. After the executive session former At-

OBITUARIES HUGO REISINGER

Art Collector Strove to Promote Friendship of U. S. and Germany. NEW YORK, Sept. 29 .- Word has been received here of the death last Saturday night of Hugo Reisinger, of this city, at Langen Schwelbach, Germany. Mr. Reisinger was well known as an art collector and for his efforts during many years to create a better understanding between the United States and Germany.

He left New York last April as commissioner to the Anglo-American Exposition in London. From London he went to Germany, intending to return to New York early in the present month, but was delayed by the war. The body will be brought home for burial.

Hugo Reisinger was a native of Wes-baden, Germany, where he was born on January 29, 1856. He was educated in the Royal Gymnasium, and in early life came to this country and became a merchant in the general import trade. He was an honorary commissioner to Europe for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis in 1904.
